OFFICE ORDER

Letter No. JKU/REG/2026/270 Dt. 25/10/2026

Sub - Rescheduling of Puja Vacation in View of the Impending Cyclone Threat

In view of the impending cyclone threat in Odisha and in the interest of the safety and well-being of students, the Puja vacation of Jagadguru Kripalu University is hereby rescheduled as a precautionary measure, with immediate effect.

The following arrangements shall be observed until further orders:

1. Puja Vacation for Students: The Puja vacation shall stand extended, and students shall report to the University campus on 1 November 2026, subject to further instructions issued by the University.
2. Duties of Staff Members: All staff members shall continue to discharge their assigned duties as usual, in accordance with the instructions issued by the University authorities.
3. Faculty Development Programme (FDP): The FDP scheduled to commence on 27 October 2026 shall continue as per the existing schedule.
4. Mid-Term Examination: The Mid-Term Examination is tentatively rescheduled to commence on 2 November 2026, subject to confirmation through a subsequent notification.
5. Further Instructions: The revised vacation dates and academic schedule shall be notified separately after assessing the prevailing cyclone situation and the advisories issued by the competent authorities.

All concerned are directed to take note of the above arrangements and act accordingly. The University administration shall continue to monitor the situation and issue further instructions, as necessary, in the interest of the safety of students and the smooth functioning of the University.
